Techmer PM Analytical and Testing Laboratory receives ISO 17025-2005 Accreditation

The Techmer PM Analytical and Testing Laboratory located in Clinton Tennessee, has recently been awarded accreditation to the quality assurance requirements of ISO 17025-2005, as determined by the American Association for Laboratory Accreditation (A2LA).

This most recent approval assures that the Techmer PM Analytical and Testing Laboratory maintains a quality assurance system in accordance with current ISO 17025 and that our customers operating to similar requirements can confidently rely on our laboratory to provide accurate test results that are sufficiently documented and traceable to nationally-recognized standards.

The Scope of our Accreditation encompasses test methods within the field of Mechanical Testing; representing plastics test capabilities. These Testing capabilities under the scope of accreditation for mechanical testing (certificate #2844.01) are available for review on the A2LA website at www.A2LA.org, on the Techmer PM, L.L.C. website at www.techmerpm.com, or upon request from the company Quality Assurance Department.

Techmer PM is a major producer of value-added colorants and additives for the plastics and fiber industries. The company has worldwide manufacturing capabilities focusing on high-performance applications where quality, technical support, and problem solving are critical.

Come see Techmer PM representatives at NPE 2009, June 22-26 at McCormick Place, West Hall – Booth 135030.
